THE WOOD LAKE PUBLISHING IMPRINTS

NEW IN SPRING 2008

Northstone | where spirituality and real life meet

For over ten years, Northstone (NS) imprint has focused on bringing a spiritual and value-based perspective to everyday life. While not all Northstone books are overtly spiritual, they are all true to the core values of respect for self, others, and the world. Northstone authors are skilled at putting spiritual truths into accessible language and offering practical ways to live our values in our everyday lives.

CopperHouse | Transforming Lives

CopperHouse (CH) supports the groundswell of interest in a “new” Christianity. This is spirituality deeply rooted in tradition yet fully open to the winds of spirit in our time. An open and inclusive Christianity, it honours diverse people and traditions, and celebrates creation and creator. This is a Christianity that calls us to accountability in all aspects of our personal and collective lives. The authors and titles of this imprint are true to enduring tradition while open to transformation by the new thing God is doing.

WoodLake | resources for people of faith

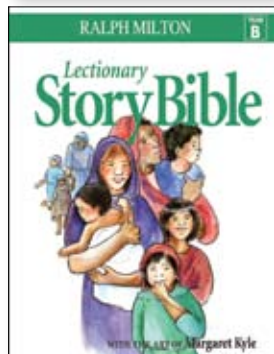

WoodLake (WL) is an imprint that continues the long tradition of publishing profoundly usable books and program resources. WoodLake titles have been inclusive, truth-seeking, religious, life-affirming, and have dealt positively with life and faith. While the spiritual journey often begins on the inside, with an individual, WoodLake titles also challenge readers to move outward to express faith in ways that support the earth and all her creatures.
